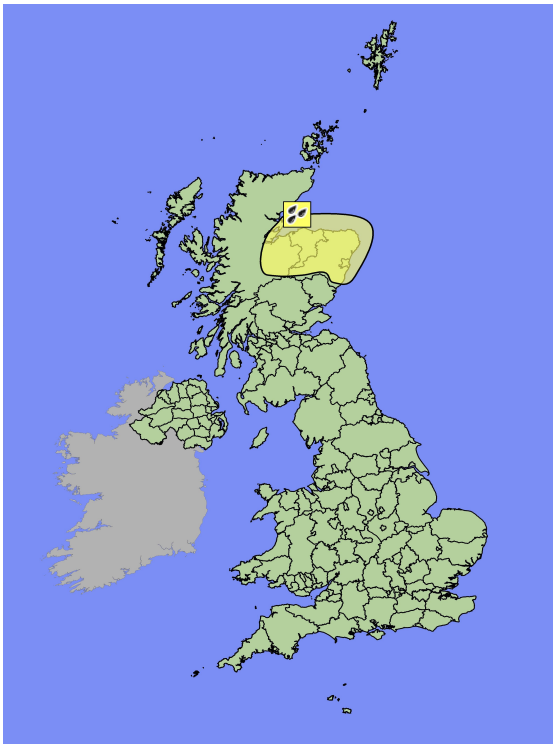
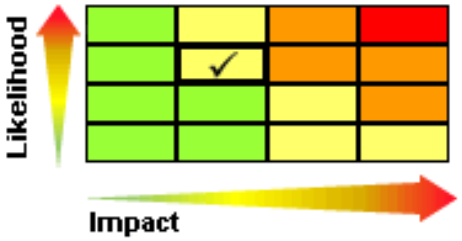
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
With some river levels already quite high, there is concern that the protracted nature of this rainfall event could lead lead to some flooding.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 00:05 on Sun, 07th Aug 2011 until 14:00 on Mon, 08th Aug 2011

Rain will continue through Sunday and the first half of Monday, before easing. Large totals will build up, 30-40 mm quite widely, and 50-60 mm in a few locations, notably north-facing upslopes. This may cause some localised flooding.
